

Splendid News Items Get Busy! Buy Now!

98c FOR MEN'S fancy ribbed flat fleeced or wool finish UNION SUITS, eight different styles and weights, worth half more this season.

(MAIN FLOOR.)

50c FOR BOYS UNION SUITS ages 6 to 14, fine ribbed, fleeced winter weight, cream color.

(MAIN FLOOR.)

$2.50 FOR MEN'S heavy khaki HUNTING COATS, have large pockets, sewed extra strong; will hold a large amount of game.

(SECOND FLOOR.)

$1.98 FOR MEN'S heavy CORDUROY PANTS, soft materials, fine ribbed made in the best possible way, dark colors, all sizes.

(SECOND FLOOR.)

98c pair for 66x76 cotton blankets, tan only, fast color borders; come early, only 75 pairs and they won't last long at these prices.

(THIRD FLOOR.)

50c for children's gingham dresses, in plaid and plain patterns, an endless assortment in sizes 4 to 14.

(THIRD FLOOR.)

$2.98 FOR CHILDREN'S ASTRACHAN coats, regularly $3.50 in navy blue, open, brown and black; sizes to 6; all this season's styles.

(THIRD FLOOR.)

98c FOR WOMEN'S FELT fur trimmed SLIPPERS have turn leather soles and heels, in various colors.

(SECOND FLOOR.)

98c FOR BOYS KNICKERBOCKER KNEE PANTS in several shades, heavy soft fabrics, full cut, have pockets, belt loops, etc., sizes 6 to 17.

(SECOND FLOOR.)

$2.98 FOR WOMEN'S all-wool SWEATER COATS in fancy knit and plain. Belted or regular styles in copen rose, oxford, maroon, scarlet and navy, regularly $3.50.

(MAIN FLOOR.)

Other Stores May Equal Our Prices--But Never Our Values

MANNINGTON NEWS

Donley S. Jones, Correspondent, 79 West Main St., Bell Phone 93 M

Passed Away

Mrs. Mary Boutwell, wife of E. A. died at her home in the Clayton addition Friday evening. Mrs. Boutwell was suffering from a cancerous trouble following an operation some years ago which was the cause of her death. Mrs. Boutwell was thirty-eight years of age, she is survived by her husband, father, five sisters and two brothers. Funeral services were held from the M. E. church Sunday at 2 p. m. Interment was made in the Mannington cemetery.

Dent's Run Pool

The new Dent's Run oil pool which is the new sensation in the eastern oil field, has a daily production of 2,880 barrels.

Rally Day

Sunday, October 15, will be rally day at the M. E. church. Rally starts one week before. Monday, October 9, Sunday School Board and officers meet. Tuesday night board teachers and school meet except adult classes. Wednesday night whole school attend with teachers and officers. Friday night the school officers and teachers meet for a social evening and to welcome the pastor back.

Mannington Wins

Saturday the Mannington High school team journeyed to New Martinsville where they played the strong Magnolia High team of that city in the afternoon Mannington won by a score of 13-6.

Twins

Born September 23 to Mr. and Mrs. John Sidley a son and a daughter.

At Presbyterian Church

Rev. John Cribbles, of Ashland, Md., filled the pulpit of the Presbyterian church Sunday.

A Daughter

Born Wednesday, September 27, to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Clover, a daughter.

Son

Born Thursday, September 28, to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Masters, a son.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. William Rushford have returned to their home in Glover Gap after a visit with friends in town. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Carmichael, of the Hamilton terrace, have returned from a week's visit with relatives in Glen Easton.

Miss Fala Michaels has returned from Erushaw where she was visiting with relatives.

Miss Mary Weekly, of Farmington, and Russell Weekly, of East Run, spent the week-end in town visiting with relatives in the Brookside addition.

F. L. Koen has returned from a business visit to Wheeling.

Mrs. J. E. Yost has returned from a visit to Fairmont.

Mrs. O. N. Koen, Mrs. A. W. Prichard and Mrs. J. T. Koen are in Wheeling attending the M. E. conference.

The Hope Natural Gas company is moving its office from the Hays building on Water street to the new Koen building on Pleasant street.

I. W. Davis has returned from Wheeling where he was attending the M. E. conference.

Dyer Fisher, of Akron, O., was visiting in town Saturday.

Miss Mabelle Calvert, of East Main street, has gone to Wheeling where she will attend the wedding of Miss Marie Rhter.

Mrs. Wesley Jones and son, John William, have gone to Moundsville for a visit with relatives.

Miss Lena Prichard, of Pittsburgh, spent the week-end in town visiting with her parents on Pleasant street.

Mrs. T. M. Calvert has gone to Weston for a visit with relatives.

George Miller, of Charleston, is in town looking after business interests.

C. N. Paxton has returned from a visit to his home in Wheeling.

E. H. Clover has returned from Wheeling where he was visiting with his wife and daughter.

I. M. Hupp has returned from Moundsville where he spent the week-end visiting with his family.

Mrs. J. J. Allen has returned from a month's visit in New Jersey.

Mrs. A. W. Prichard, of Washington street, has returned from a visit to Wheeling.

W. N. Way, of the Eureka Pipe Line company, has gone for several weeks' visit in Detroit, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Roggeas and son have returned from a visit in Pennsylvania.

EAST SIDE -- NEWS --

Marriage Announced

The marriage of Miss Nell Alena Varnum, of Versailles, Pa., and Cliff C. Biddlestone, of McKeesport, Pa., was announced Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Biddlestone were married Wednesday, September 12, at Oakland, Md. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Varnum, of Versailles, who resided on the East Side until a few years ago.

Left This Morning

Mrs. Florence Gray, Mrs. Hannah Jones, Mrs. O. C. Philipps and Mrs. J. D. Summers left this morning for Parkersburg to attend the W. C. T. U. convention. They are delegates from the East Side Union.

Aid Society

A business meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Diamond Street M. E. church will be held Thursday evening at the church.

Reception

In honor of the new pastor, Rev. B. M. Mitchell and his family, a reception will be given Tuesday evening at the church. All members of the church and their friends are invited to attend. A most enjoyable affair is anticipated.

Y. M. W. Club

Mrs. Blaine Moore will entertain the Y. M. W. club on Wednesday afternoon.

PERSONALS

Miss Nellie Boyles, who spent the past three weeks with relatives here, left Saturday for Little Falls.

Odward Henderson, of near Grafton, is the guest of his uncle, T. B. Henderson, on Guffey street.

Mrs. Riley Sterfield of Haymond street, is visiting at Little Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall, of Blacksville, spent Sunday here.

Mrs. Neta Hammers has returned from a few days' visit at Pittsburgh. She was accompanied home by her brother, Dent Powell. Mrs. Powell is expected here in a few days and they will reside here.

NATURE'S REAL FREAKS
Just as folk were getting up and dressing at the Big Bend camp meeting tent colony, Sunday morning, a small tornado came along and blew most of the tents away, leaving the people standing there wearing nothing much except a look of surprise. It was quite a freak of nature.—Esen Meadow (Ga.) Journal.

Wise Russian Regulation.
The Russian government controls the prices charged for medical prescriptions.

WAR DOGS BRAVE HOT GUN FIRE TO HELP MASTER WIN

AMERICAN PRESS ASSN.

Shot while bearing a dispatch through German gun fire, this French Red Cross dog limped back and bravely sustained pain while surgeons dressed his wounds.

PARIS, France, Sept. 25.—Real dogs of war are performing wonderful feats for opposing hosts in the gigantic European struggle.

Historians after the war will not overlook the Red Cross dog that has distinguished itself by saving lives, warding off surprise attacks and carrying dispatches through zones where enemy fire was so intense it was not safe to send a human messenger.

One of the most notable dogs of the war was Marquis, the famous regimental dispatch bearer of the French arm.

At the battle of Sartebourg on the Belgian front, Marquis was entrusted with an important dispatch to be carried through a zone swept by intense Prussian fire.

Marquis had gone only a hundred yards when he was shot. He crawled back with the undelivered message, fell at his master's feet and died. His soldier comrades buried him and placed a monument over his grave.

Pell, Podge, North, Bac and Ruff are other famous war dogs. They were a great help to the French in driving the Prussians out of Boesinghe Woods in one of the Ypres engagements.

In north France is a terraced colony holding a standing army of war dogs. The dogs are equipped with every device of canine military paraphernalia.

In the allied armies every regiment has its canine mascot.

Michigan massed along gaily decorated streets gave Roosevelt a noisy greeting. This was Col. Roosevelt's first campaign speech in Michigan for Charles E. Hughes, and the second he has made thus far on behalf of the Republican candidate for President.

On his journey from Detroit to Battle Creek the Colonel made a brief rear platform speech at Marshall.

Many women carrying babies were in the audience, and Mr. Roosevelt praised them "for being good citizens." A number of Boy Scouts were present and the former President endorsed the purposes of their organization.

The coming of Col. Roosevelt was regarded by local Republicans and Progressives as the last step in the reconciliation of these parties in Michigan. Delegations were present from 10 Southern Michigan counties to welcome the former President.

A feature of the parade was a float in which were seated the two chairmen of the split Republican state convention of 1912. On top of this float was a dove of peace.

A barbecue at the circus ground preceded the speechmaking.

Former Senator Lafayette Young of Iowa, United States Senator Charles E. Townsend of Michigan and Representative Patrick H. Kelley of Michigan were among the speakers at the tent meeting.

Both before and after his election, he couldn't stand for Woodrow.

Cornwell quickly ducked Gov. Hatfield's challenge to go before the people and debate it out. As a sidestep, the Romney candidate is entitled to wear the diamond-studded belt.

With a libel suit on his hands five weeks before his campaign is ended Mr. Cornwell will have a hard time convincing anybody that he hasn't been indulging in personalities.

John T. McGraw, limb of the law, Most abused man you ever saw!

It is one of the strange and swift reversals of politics that the "original" Wilson men in West Virginia in 1912 are anything but "original" in this year of grace.

"Will you walk into my Gold Mine?" Said Bill to Colonel Beall.
"Will I walk into Your Gold Mine?" I will like—ducks."

Banged on the bean with a challenge to debate and staggered with a blow over the heart by a libel suit. Kid Cornwell's fighting days look to be over.

Placed upon the ticket for the purpose of driving a wedge into the solid McGraw faction, the Hon. Alf Kennedy may be excused on account of his utter inability to deliver the goods. If the Hon. Alf can do it with his own vote it will surprise all who know him.

Both before and after his election, he couldn't stand for Woodrow.

Cornwell quickly ducked Gov. Hatfield's challenge to go before the people and debate it out. As a sidestep, the Romney candidate is entitled to wear the diamond-studded belt.

With a libel suit on his hands five weeks before his campaign is ended Mr. Cornwell will have a hard time convincing anybody that he hasn't been indulging in personalities.

John T. McGraw, limb of the law, Most abused man you ever saw!

It is one of the strange and swift reversals of politics that the "original" Wilson men in West Virginia in 1912 are anything but "original" in this year of grace.

"Will you walk into my Gold Mine?" Said Bill to Colonel Beall.
"Will I walk into Your Gold Mine?" I will like—ducks."

Banged on the bean with a challenge to debate and staggered with a blow over the heart by a libel suit. Kid Cornwell's fighting days look to be over.

Placed upon the ticket for the purpose of driving a wedge into the solid McGraw faction, the Hon. Alf Kennedy may be excused on account of his utter inability to deliver the goods. If the Hon. Alf can do it with his own vote it will surprise all who know him.

Both before and after his election, he couldn't stand for Woodrow.

Cornwell quickly ducked Gov. Hatfield's challenge to go before the people and debate it out. As a sidestep, the Romney candidate is entitled to wear the diamond-studded belt.

With a libel suit on his hands five weeks before his campaign is ended Mr. Cornwell will have a hard time convincing anybody that he hasn't been indulging in personalities.

John T. McGraw, limb of the law, Most abused man you ever saw!

It is one of the strange and swift reversals of politics that the "original" Wilson men in West Virginia in 1912 are anything but "original" in this year of grace.

"Will you walk into my Gold Mine?" Said Bill to Colonel Beall.
"Will I walk into Your Gold Mine?" I will like—ducks."

Banged on the bean with a challenge to debate and staggered with a blow over the heart by a libel suit. Kid Cornwell's fighting days look to be over.

Placed upon the ticket for the purpose of driving a wedge into the solid McGraw faction, the Hon. Alf Kennedy may be excused on account of his utter inability to deliver the goods. If the Hon. Alf can do it with his own vote it will surprise all who know him.

NATIONAL HONOR SACRIFICED SAYS T. R. IN SPEECH

Severe Arraignment of Wilson Administration at Battle Creek.

AMERICAN LIVES WASTED

Former President Makes An Appeal for Support of Hughes.

Two Injured in Auto Wreck on Peacock Hill

ROBIN HOOD AND R. H. CHIDESTER IN COOK HOSPITAL.

Robin Hood, of this city and R. H. Chidester, of Weston, are in Cook Hospital today suffering from serious injuries received Saturday when a large touring car driven by Fred Jamison jumped from the road on the Peacock Hill near Edgemont. Fred Jamison, Lawrence Padden, of Wheeling, a student at W. V. U., and two young men from Farmington, named Deltrich and Murphy were the other occupants of the car, but all escaped with slight scratches.

The car was being driven at a moderate speed when the steering knuckles gave way as the machine was taking a sharp curve. The wheels whirled into the car tracks and could not be wrenched out. The machine then turned almost to right angles of the road and crashed, first into a tie on the street car track, then into a flange of the track and finally ended against a trolley pole. Chidester and Hood were both hurt seriously, having bruises and scalp wounds about the head. It is thought today that they will recover.

DEFINITE
Stranger—How many machines pass here a day?
Farmer—I couldn't tell ye, exactly, sir!

Tourist—Oh, about how many?
Farmer—It all depends.
Tourist—Well, on the average?
Farmer—Wal, stranger, the average varies.

IRON AND WOODWORKING MACHINERY—New and second hand. Machine tools, lathes, drills, shapers, planers, presses, garage machinery, gasoline engines, pumps, electric motors, engines, boilers, planers, band-saws, etc. Saw mill outfits, belting, pulleys, shafting. Write today. DAIRD MACHINERY CO., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Roosevelt spoke at length on the Mexican situation. He criticized President Wilson for refusing to recognize President Huerta and for recognizing the Carranza government. "Every argument against Huerta applied with ten-fold more truth and weight against Carranza," he said.

Col. Roosevelt declared that fear and hope of personal profit caused President Wilson to force passage of the Adamson wage-fixing bill.

"President Wilson yielded to the dictation of the heads of the brotherhoods and made no effort to find out whether the demand was right or wrong," he added. "He took his order from that one of the parties interested which he most feared. The question at issue was not one of the hours of labor. It was one of wages. The settlement was due partly to hope of political profit."

Roosevelt's closing words were a plea for Hughes' election. "I appeal to my fellow-citizens that they elect Mr. Hughes and repudiate Mr. Wilson because only by so doing can they save America from the taint of gross selfishness."

Thousands of people from Battle Creek and surrounding sections of Michigan massed along gaily decorated streets gave Roosevelt a noisy greeting. This was Col. Roosevelt's first campaign speech in Michigan for Charles E. Hughes, and the second he has made thus far on behalf of the Republican candidate for President.

On his journey from Detroit to Battle Creek the Colonel made a brief rear platform speech at Marshall.

Many women carrying babies were in the audience, and Mr. Roosevelt praised them "for being good citizens." A number of Boy Scouts were present and the former President endorsed the purposes of their organization.

The coming of Col. Roosevelt was regarded by local Republicans and Progressives as the last step in the reconciliation of these parties in Michigan. Delegations were present from 10 Southern Michigan counties to welcome the former President.

A feature of the parade was a float in which were seated the two chairmen of the split Republican state convention of 1912. On top of this float was a dove of peace.

A barbecue at the circus ground preceded the speechmaking.

Former Senator Lafayette Young of Iowa, United States Senator Charles E. Townsend of Michigan and Representative Patrick H. Kelley of Michigan were among the speakers at the tent meeting.

Through The Political Periscope

Grouped with United States Senator William E. Chilton, State Democratic Chairman Clem L. Shaver, and others of the Democratic bosses and their hirelings, Judas Iscariot would stand today as a man of high honor.—Col. Wylie Beall, Treasurer of the Watson-Cornwell State Committee.

The Editor of the Hades Hot Plate is authorized by Mr. Judas J. Iscariot, who called on ye scribe today, to send greetings to Col. Beall and thanks for them kind v-r-ds. On his own account, ye editor will say that hell is all het up with pride over this complimentary reference to one of its foremost and best known residents.—Hades Hot Plate.

Cornwell wrote of Wilson, April 10, 1912: "kid-gloved, cold and selfish to an almost unheard of degree."

Cornwell wrote of Wilson, August 20, 1913: "President Wilson's nomination at Baltimore, moreover, was accomplished by Mr. Bryan's conspicuous example of base treachery to his faithful friend and supporter."

Both before and after his election, he couldn't stand for Woodrow.

Cornwell quickly ducked Gov. Hatfield's challenge to go before the people and debate it out. As a sidestep, the Romney candidate is entitled to wear the diamond-studded belt.

With a libel suit on his hands five weeks before his campaign is ended Mr. Cornwell will have a hard time convincing anybody that he hasn't been indulging in personalities.

John T. McGraw, limb of the law, Most abused man you ever saw!

It is one of the strange and swift reversals of politics that the "original" Wilson men in West Virginia in 1912 are anything but "original" in this year of grace.

"Will you walk into my Gold Mine?" Said Bill to Colonel Beall.
"Will I walk into Your Gold Mine?" I will like—ducks."

Banged on the bean with a challenge to debate and staggered with a blow over the heart by a libel suit. Kid Cornwell's fighting days look to be over.

Placed upon the ticket for the purpose of driving a wedge into the solid McGraw faction, the Hon. Alf Kennedy may be excused on account of his utter inability to deliver the goods. If the Hon. Alf can do it with his own vote it will surprise all who know him.

Both before and after his election, he couldn't stand for Woodrow.

Cornwell quickly ducked Gov. Hatfield's challenge to go before the people and debate it out. As a sidestep, the Romney candidate is entitled to wear the diamond-studded belt.

With a libel suit on his hands five weeks before his campaign is ended Mr. Cornwell will have a hard time convincing anybody that he hasn't been indulging in personalities.

John T. McGraw, limb of the law, Most abused man you ever saw!

It is one of the strange and swift reversals of politics that the "original" Wilson men in West Virginia in 1912 are anything but "original" in this year of grace.

"Will you walk into my Gold Mine?" Said Bill to Colonel Beall.
"Will I walk into Your Gold Mine?" I will like—ducks."

Banged on the bean with a challenge to debate and staggered with a blow over the heart by a libel suit. Kid Cornwell's fighting days look to be over.

Placed upon the ticket for the purpose of driving a wedge into the solid McGraw faction, the Hon. Alf Kennedy may be excused on account of his utter inability to deliver the goods. If the Hon. Alf can do it with his own vote it will surprise all who know him.

Both before and after his election, he couldn't stand for Woodrow.

Cornwell quickly ducked Gov. Hatfield's challenge to go before the people and debate it out. As a sidestep, the Romney candidate is entitled to wear the diamond-studded belt.

With a libel suit on his hands five weeks before his campaign is ended Mr. Cornwell will have a hard time convincing anybody that he hasn't been indulging in personalities.

John T. McGraw, limb of the law, Most abused man you ever saw!

It is one of the strange and swift reversals of politics that the "original" Wilson men in West Virginia in 1912 are anything but "original" in this year of grace.

The Popular Specialty Women's and Misses' Apparel

STORE HOURS: 8:00 TO 6:30

Coats
New Gorge
CREPE WAISTERS
$4.50 and $5.75

A Splendid Range of New Suits

For Women Who Wish to Pay $25.00

The smart effect of the tailored styles would cause these suits to be favorably noticed even in the company of much more expensive models.

The variety is exceedingly attractive, and has occasioned much gratification to women who expected to pay considerably more than $25.00.

New Broadcloth and Velour Cloth suits at $34.75 and $37.50. There is never any question as to the fashionableness of broadcloth.

Season after season it securely holds a distinguished place among the most favored of suit materials. One much-noticed model is belted around and has the collar finished with bands, edging of Hudson Seal, Brown, Green, Navy, Burgundy and Black.